Team RV Begins Air Show Season at SUN 'n FUN

(Atlanta, GA) March 22, 2011 – Team RV, the world's largest air show team, begins its 2011 schedule with a performance at SUN 'n FUN International Fly In and Expo in Lakeland, Florida on March 30. The team's exciting demonstration of precision formation and aerobatics promises a memorable experience for this crowd of knowledgeable aviation enthusiasts.

"At SUN 'n FUN, pilots from all over the world converge to kick off the flying season, and Team RV intends to wow them with an action-packed performance unlike any other in the industry," said Mike "Kahuna" Stewart, Team RV Founder and Flight Lead. The unique routine includes 12 aircraft engaged in a nonstop display of close formation, opposing passes, difficult rejoins, and graceful aerobatics.

Based in Atlanta, GA, Team RV is a group of southeastern pilots from a variety of backgrounds who fly RV-series aircraft in national military and civilian air shows. For more information about Team RV, visit www.teamrv.us.
